Definitions

Fee Payer means the nominated payer of a student's course fees, usually either the student or the employer paying on behalf of the student.

Policy Statement

1. Whilst MM College maintains strict and prudent financial management practices to ensure any prepaid fees received from a Fee Payer are protected, MM College will not require a Fee Payer to pay prepaid fees more than $1,500 at any given time.
2. MM College will publish and have accessible on a prominent place on its website or within its Student Handbook:
 - i) A complete and transparent listing of MM College's fees including associated terms and conditions known as the Schedule of Fees;
 - ii) Relevant fee information for individual courses within each course outline;
 - iii) Details of this policy; and
 - iv) Student consumer and refund rights including the method for requesting a refund known as the Refund Application Form.
3. MM College will ensure that prospective Students are informed of all fees and charges associated with their course and individual circumstances prior to enrolment including any additional costs the students are likely to incur.
4. Should MM College not be able deliver a course or any portion of the course, enrolled students will be automatically refunded for portions of the course where training services were not provided. Note this only applied is in the extreme event MM College ceases to operate or ceases to deliver a course.
5. A learner is entitled to any statutory cooling-off periods after enrolment to withdraw from a course entitling them to a full refund if no training has commenced.

6. Regarding course fees:
 - i) A student enrolment is deemed incomplete until the course fee (or the required prepaid instalment) is paid in full and acknowledged as received by MM College;
 - ii) A student will not receive a testamur (certificate) or statement of attainment until all course fees are paid in full and acknowledged as received by MM College;
 - iii) MM College can offer payment plans for its course fees;
 - iv) Includes all training and assessment and educational student support, up to three attempts at an assessment, all course materials, and the issuance of one set of certification documents including the testamur (certificate) and record of results and/or a statement of attainment (in the case of withdrawal or partial completion); and
 - v) Does not include optional or recommended textbooks and materials, replacement course materials (if applicable), personal use items such as computers and stationery, re-issuance of certification documentation or any re-enrolment required due to failed completion of units.
7. Regarding credit transfer applications:
 - i) MM College does not charge any fees associated with application and assessment of credit transfers and if deemed eligible, a student's course fees will be reduced accordingly.
8. Regarding recognised prior learning (RPL) applications:
 - i) [RPL applications if received and approved by MM College will incur course fees at the same rate as normal course delivery as set out in the Schedule of Fees.]
9. Regarding Refunds:
 - i) Refunds can occur in the instance that MM College withdraws or cancels a scheduled course, where the student formally withdraws prior to the course completion or where fees need to be adjusted to reflect any CT or RPL credits if processed after enrolment;
 - ii) A refund request from a Fee Payer must be provided to MM College for assessment using the Refund Application Form;
 - iii) The RTO must be in receipt of a written notification from a student of their intention to withdraw from a course prior to processing of any associated eligible refunds using the Student Withdrawal Form;
 - iv) MM College will not provide a refund to a student who has commenced a unit or course. Eligible refunds will be reduced by an amount of $150 representing MM College's enrolment cancellation fee which is a reimbursement for administration costs;
 - v) MM College will not provide a refund for recognition of prior learning assessments after enrolment, where recognition resources and services have been supplied to the student;
